New Business

- The National Park Service Rivers, Trails and Conservation Assistance (NPS-RTCA) Program has announced the acceptance of the Glacier Park Gateway Project (GPGP) assistance for Fiscal Year 2020. The grant is a collaborative effort among the community of West Glacier; the supporting partners including Flathead County, Glacier National Park, University of MT, MT State office of Outdoor Recreation, National Park Conservation Association and other state and regional partners on the planning and visioning of the community. The intent of this project is to unite community members, stakeholders, organizations and key planning partners in developing a community vision plan for West Glacier that will provide a roadmap for the future in a manner that does not diminish the aesthetic consistencies, historic character and unique setting while addressing increased visitation and development opportunities and pressures.
- Major Land Use Applications – FCMU – 19-01: LAKE 5 – Grizzly Spur and If any others, the Secretary will summarize
- Minor Land Use Applications – if any, the Secretary will summarize
